

River City Pageant Questions

After contestants have completed their personal introductions, they will stay on stage and draw an age appropriate simple opinion question from a bowl. Judges will be looking to see if the contestant speaks clearly and confidently, stays on topic and answers the question well, and if they leave a memorable impression. Although this event is not timed, contestants should try to keep answers under 30 seconds.

Since On-Stage Question immediately follows Personal Introduction, there will be no need to change your wardrobe. Please see our Personal Introduction page for wardrobe details.

Walking Format

Personal Introduction and On-Stage Question require going on stage only once. A contestant will come out to a marked location center stage, pause briefly (about 5 seconds) and then head to the front of the stage to be handed a microphone for their Personal Introduction. Once contestants have completed their intro, they will draw a question from a bowl, give a short answer, and then exit the stage.

These are the actual questions that will be asked at the pageant.
Please do not memorize answers.
